What Types of Customers Should Consider a PERS Solution from Anelto?

Most people think of fall alerts when they hear personal safety devices. Anelto's lightweight, technology forward PERS and mobilePERS (mPERS) systems are good options to improve personal safety and security in a variety of situations, including:

- Independent seniors, especially those with special care needs
- Chronic care management
- Alzheimer's patients
- Lone workers (hotel employees, realtors, restaurants, convenience stores)
- Students on college campuses
